I TRUST IN NUR

for Melika Salihbeg Bosnawi

Path that I stepped away today certainly had the sky features

And it has to be so
for, by my hand
I touched a star

As I kept descending seven times down to the river, while filling up and emptying the jug have fallen down same number of the veils
on this sixth day
upon the revelation

Trembling on her knees
a silkworm
did not stop to weave
Love, the omnipotent
The very light through which I have realised
truth about a human (First record of the sun
by & about he himself)
