WHEN YOU FEEL A CHILL IN YOUR SOUL . . .

miniatures

When you feel a chill in your soul
Here it is, for you, an endless firmament!
Be each of its stars!

When you feel a chill in your soul
Here it is for you, an endless terrestrial desert!
Be each grain of its sand!

When you feel a chill in your soul
Here it is for you, an ocean (of pain) without shores!
Be to that water each of its drops!

When you feel a chill in your soul
Here are, for you, all stones of the world!
Be with each one your own gravestone!

When you feel a chill in your soul
Warm up yourself with one and unique, the greatest name - Allâh!

ThenISayAgain:

When you are chilled in your soul... Here it is for you an endless firmament! Whirl up with it! Here it is for you a desert all around; be each one of its particles! Here it is for you the whole Universe! Make the entire Universe of God a place for your (final) rest!
